

Kevin Leslie

- TTS Student: 1996 - 2006

Current role: Self employed - Actor

Career pathway:

I completed a BA Hons Acting course at Arts University Bournemouth and went on to gain my first professional credit playing Dick Whittingham in pantomime in Wimbourne. After this I moved to London and signed with an agent.

My performing roles have included playing Reggie Kray in 'The Rise and The Fall of the Krays', filming 'Pearls of Africa on set in Kenya and appearing in 'Blue Stockings' at the Shakespeare Globe.

Advice for students:

If you have a dream go for it! Don't let anyone stop you or get in your way, but you must be prepared to work for it.

Plans for the future:

I would like to continue to work within the film, television and the theatre industry in leading male roles. In the future I am also interested in making my own work and directing different productions.

Best memory of your time at Thomas Telford?

My best memory of my time at Thomas Telford is performing various School Shows and Arts presentation nights. This gave me the opportunity to showcase my work and use the excellent facilities. I also have many fond memories of skipping lunch and enjoy a game of football!
