

What's on in Careers in January!

TBC – Y11 Careers Interviews Start

UCAS DEADLINE

15th January 2019

Not yet made your application ?

Please make an appointment to see a member of the Careers Team urgently

Y10 "Careers and Activities Week"

Any outstanding option forms to be returned to the Careers Team ASAP

10th January 8:30 – 3:15

Y7 Trip

Jaguar Land Rover

21st January - Year 10 Technology Students

NAVY Submarine Team Visit

22nd Jan 3:30-5:00 - Hospitality
"Missing"

Are you interested in a career in policing, criminology, forensic science etc
Why not join this interactive session 3 in which experts from Staffordshire University will help you examine evidence from witness statements, CCTV, mobile phone records etc. to solve a fictitious missing person investigation.
Professor Stephen Maskrey Staffordshire

Capgemini Work Experience Application Process -
25th January 11:30- 12:00 Conference

15th Jan 3:30-5:00 - Hospitality

"Eating Richard Parker"

Are you are interested in law, forensics, psychology, ethics or philosophy ?

This interesting session 3 activity explores concepts of law and morality and the conflicts that sometimes arise between them.

Investigate a real criminal trial from the 19th Century, when three shipwrecked sailors were charged with killing and eating a 17 year old cabin boy (Richard Parker) in order to survive.

Professor Stretch Staffordshire University

MEDSOC

21st January 3:30-5:00

Operating Department Practitioner talk -
Rob Corbett Staffordshire University

28th January 3:30-5:00

Learning Disability Nursing taster session -
Wolverhampton University

22nd January

RAF Careers Appointments

To book an individual appointment with an RAF recruitment officer to discuss RAF career opportunities – please contact member of the Careers Team

6:2

Making Choices Assembly
29th January

6:1 Work Experience

Request forms and letters be completed and handed in to Careers Team ASAP

If you are interested in an activity that is not currently being offered please come and see a member of the Careers Team